The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `localhost:8080/Lab7/subject/viewSubject.jsp`. The page title is "Academic Subjects for Ainaa". A modal dialog box is open, displaying the message "localhost:8080 says Remove this subject registration?" with "OK" and "Cancel" buttons. The dialog is positioned over a table of subjects. The table has columns: #, Subject Code, Subject Name, and Actions. It lists two subjects: CSE3023 (Web based Application Development) and CSE3953 (Application Development). The "Delete" button for CSE3953 was clicked, triggering the modal.

| # | Subject Code | Subject Name                      | Actions                                     |
|---|--------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| 1 | CSE3023      | Web based Application Development | Edit Delete |
| 2 | CSE3953      | Application Development           | Edit Delete |

| # | Subject Code | Subject Name            | Actions                                     |
|---|--------------|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------|

After click “Edit”

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `localhost:8080/Lab7/subject/updateSubject.jsp?id=2`. A modal dialog box titled "Modify Subject Registration" is open. It contains two input fields: "Subject Code" with the value "CSE3953" and "Subject Name" with the value "Application Web". There are "Cancel" and "Update Changes" buttons at the bottom of the dialog.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `localhost:8080/Lab7/subject/viewSubject.jsp`. The page title is "Academic Subjects for Ainaa Nadhirah". The table of subjects now shows the updated information for CSE3953, with the subject name changed to "Application Web".

| # | Subject Code | Subject Name    | Actions                                     |
